Twelfth Annual Report of the State Mission Board.

The past year has been perhaps the most remarkable in the history of Alabama.

Probably no State in the Union is now attracting so much attention.

The increase in wealth and population in this State is without precedent in the South.

This imposes upon our people new responsibilities.

Your board has done the best it could with the funds placed in its hands for State Missions, but it has been compelled to deny many urgent appeals.

It is well for all of us to know the exact condition of the churches which are called Missionary Baptists in Alabama. We boast a membership of near 90,000, 1,400 churches, and near 800 ordained ministers.

Examining the Minutes of last year we find 718 of these churches gave nothing for missions; of the remaining number more than 400 contributed less than ten dollars each, most of them very much less.

It is probable that not more than one-third of the 800 ordained ministers have charge of churches, and not more than one-tenth give themselves entirely to the ministry. The average per member for missions is less than twelve cents.

These are discouraging statements, but if they are facts we should know them.

We are glad to say, however, there are many things to indicate progress. Ten years ago this board in its report to the convention spoke of the work of "our missionary," referring to Brother T. M. Bailey, their only employee at that time. At that meeting the work was enlarged and Brother Bailey made Secretary. In that year only $1,400 was given for State Missions, and only about $1,300 was given from Alabama to each of the two boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, $300 of the amount given to Home Missions being a part of a legacy.

While the present outlook is not as cheering as we could wish, the improvement in ten years is so apparent that we have many reasons "to thank God and take courage."

We are persuaded that with the co-operation of churches and pastors, if present methods are adhered to and pushed with proper energy, still better results may be anticipated.

ORGANIZATION OF CHURCH WORK.

We have steadily kept before churches and pastors the importance of organizing their work. In this we are not alone, but reports from Baptist Conventions in nearly all the States dwell with emphasis upon the same subject. This almost simultaneous agitation of the question in all the States means a change for the better, and improvement at this point indicates an advance in all our work.

Your board would call attention to the report on systematic giving adopted at the last session of the Southern Baptist Convention. While we have not formally adopted the plan suggested there, it is the one towards which we are tending, and we hope soon that every association will have its standing committee to look after mission collections.

We have found our present plan of work, namely, making the State Mission Board the agent for the other boards in Alabama, so promising, and attended with such favor among our people, we deem it wise to adhere to it.

ENVELOPES.

We have continued to furnish all churches and Sunday-schools with envelopes free on application. Wherever they have been diligently used, we have evidence of most gratifying results.

The benefits of the system may be summed up thus:

1. Its simplicity.
2. It brings the giver face to face with the words of the Master on the subject of giving.
3. It makes the contributors familiar with the different departments of our work and their location.
4. It reaches all the members, affording each an opportunity to give.
5. It furnishes work for the young members in distributing and gathering in the envelopes. Hundreds are now giving through this simple method who never gave before.

LAYMEN'S WORK.

The increased activity of the lay-members of our churches is so marked and it promises so much for the future, we deem it worthy of mention in this connection. In many of our associations, the common sense of consecrated business men asserts itself for improved methods often in the face of opposition. Coming to the help of the ministry with their practical business sense, these brethren will greatly increase the efficiency of the churches in every department of work.

HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

During the last conventional year Alabama has given to the Home Mission Board $3,332.46; to the Foreign Mission Board, $4,035.75, which is a gratifying increase over last year.

Of these amounts nearly two-thirds of the Home Mission and four-fifths of the Foreign Mission contributions passed through the Secretary's hands.

The Foreign Mission Board has furnished the Secretary's office with two hundred copies of the Foreign Mission Journal each month, which have been sent out to the churches. We hope thus not only to increase the circulation of this valuable paper, but also to disseminate mission intelligence among our people. We have tried through the year to cultivate broad views of the mission work and mission field, holding before the people the commission of our Master "to preach the gospel to every creature in all the world." In doing this, perhaps our State mission work has temporarily suffered, but we are not discouraged at the results, being firmly persuaded that this is the correct principle.

STATE MISSIONS.

We have received for State Missions $7,387.33, a small increase over last year. We have about paid off all the missionaries for whom the board is directly responsible, and have a small balance on hand. When it became apparent last fall that the crops in many parts of the State were seriously cut short, we feared to enlarge the work, as the demands seemed to require. Results have proven the wisdom of that course. But for the growth of systematic methods in many of our churches our receipts would have fallen below last year's. We need for State Missions at least $15,000. We have been asking for $12,000 and have been getting but little more than half that amount, but with present crop prospects, the increasing wealth of our people, the growth of missionary zeal and the adoption of better methods of raising money by the churches, it may be this increased amount will be realized.

ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS.

In 1881 the board in its annual report to the convention named as one of the hindrances to the work, "The general desire of associations whose churches contribute to State Missions to have labor expended in their bounds equal to the money given. It hinders the board from sending men and means to the most needy fields which give promise of speedy returns."

This is still a serious hindrance to the work. The new towns must be occupied, and that not by men who live at a distance and preach once a month, but by pastors on the ground, who visit from house to house and preach every Sabbath to the same people. If this is not done we lose the opportunity, and hence the field. But the board cannot do this if it is required by the associations to expend all moneys contributed by them in their own bounds.

This is a matter of so much importance we deem it well to recommend to the convention that it be referred to a committee to be appointed who shall consider and report on the same at the present session.

The Secretary corresponded with the Moderators and Clerks of the several associations last fall, and we are pleased to report that, so far as heard from, he received assurances of friendship to the convention and its work, and a desire to cultivate friendly relations with the board.

We submit a summary of the work done during the year:

Besides this the Secretary met with seventeen associations at their annual sessions, traveled thousands of miles, preached and made addresses everywhere he went, wrote letters, sent out circulars, aided churches in securing pastors, and sold many books from the office of which no record was kept.

BIBLE WORK—AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY.

The Publication Society continues its liberal grants of Bibles and Testaments for gratuitous distribution, and we trust its work is taking stronger hold upon the hearts of our people.

BIBLE AND COLPORTAGE WORK.

The last convention instructed us to gather in the "funds and outstanding books before proceeding further with active colportage work in the field."

We found that we could not cease operations entirely without great injustice to some good men who were succeeding in their work; we had no place to store the books returned, many of them being seriously damaged, to become more so by holding them. So the Secretary was instructed to dispose of the damaged books to the best advantage. By the purchase of some new books many of the old books have been sold, and we now have in hand $729.87 in cash, and $623.67 worth of books, besides $914.19 in the hands of colporteurs and others. Of the outstanding books it is probable we will not collect all which is due, but we are closing out the old business as rapidly as possible. The time has now come when we must ask you to relieve the board entirely of the book business, or make an effort to establish a depository somewhere in the State furnishing the Secretary with a competent assistant to attend to the business of the office. We are convinced that this depository, if established, will be a great agency for good to the denomination; we feel sure, too, that with but little effort, it could be furnished with all the means necessary to pay its expenses. One thing is certain, it is impossible for the Secretary to do justice to this work and the mission work also without the constant aid of an efficient man.

EDUCATION OF COLORED PREACHERS.

But little has been given for this object the past year, but we are persuaded that all our aid to this people should be towards the education of their preachers.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES AND CHILDREN'S BANDS.

It is gratifying to note the noble work being done by the Christian women of our State. They are not only multiplying societies among themselves for mission and church work, but they are organizing societies among the children and young people as well. These societies, raising their money regularly and reporting through their churches, should be encouraged. Respectfully submitted,

W. B. CRUMPTON,
Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer.

18. The report of the Board of Ministerial Education was read by M. B. Wharton and referred to a special committee of W. C. Bledsoe, W. E. Lloyd, J. S. Dill, J. C. Wright and S. P. Fowlkes.

Report of the Board of Ministerial Education.

The Board of Ministerial Education, located by the last Convention at Montgomery, began its labors without a dollar in the treasury, and with many applications for aid by worthy candidates for the ministry. We have aided twenty-four in all, embracing fifteen at Howard College, six in High Schools and two at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, in amounts as per tabular statement submitted herewith, and aggregating $2,028.50. No worthy applicant has been denied, and in each case such a sum granted as afforded the needed relief.

We have received from all sources the sum of $2,530.16, and disbursed, as per the Treasurer's report, the sum of $2,028.50, leaving a balance in the treasury of $501.66. During the session there have been twenty-four ministerial students at Howard College, and a finer, more promising body of men, so the faculty reports, has not been within the walls of the college during its history. Prof. Dill in a communication says: "The new material brought in during the past session is unusually good, both in reference to character and talent." As stated fifteen of the students have been aided by the board, and the remaining eight, self-supporting, have yet by an arrangement we made with the Board of Trustees, been granted the same privileges as the beneficiaries as to exemption from tuition, reduction in board, etc. The price agreed upon by the two boards was $105.00 per student for board, room-rent and fuel.

At the Louisville Seminary there have been nine students from Alabama in attendance this session, two of whom, as stated, we have aided, the only applications we have received; but Dr. Manly writes some of the others have been helped from the student's fund, which he hopes the Alabama brethren will kindly remember in their contributions. In addition we have aided one colored student at Selma University, a special contribution having been made for this purpose. If this fund could be increased, the board is cognizant of opportunities where it could be wisely expended.

This encouraging report represents much hard work, particularly on the part of our efficient Secretary and Treasurer, brother Geo W. Ellis, and the earnest and successful efforts of Rev. W. B. Crumpton, Secretary of the State Mission Board. Rev. G. A. Nunnally, D. D., while acting for Howard, also specially aided the board. The amount contributed, we are pained to say, does not indicate a general and generous spirit of benevolence on the part of the brotherhood at large, for hundreds of churches and scores of associations have not, though often appealed to, given anything. The burden has fallen on a few liberal associations, churches and brethren who have acted nobly.

We can never realize the true theory of our work until all the churches and associations become interested in it. No object is more important than training our rising ministry. By developing men, missions and all other good causes are promoted, and we appeal to our brethren throughout the State to come to our help.

From the itemized report of the Secretary and Treasurer it will be seen that some churches have given more than could be reasonably expected, others less, and many nothing at all.

As the number of applicants is all the time increasing, we shall need $3,000.00 for the next year, and by a united effort the amount can be easily raised.

We have taken the usual notes from students aided as a protection against such as may abandon the ministry for other occupations.

Respectfully submitted.

M. B. WHARTON, President.

27. After prayer the report of the Board of Trustees of Howard College was read by the President, W. W. Wilkerson, and referred to the Committee on Education.

Report of the Board of Trustees of Howard College.

The number of students in attendance at Howard College during the past session was 103. Of these 24 were preparing for the ministry. This is the largest number of theological students that has ever been in attendance during any one session. The conduct of the students has been exemplary. They have been moral and assiduous in the discharge of their duties. In this respect, the college has never had a more satisfactory session. The same Faculty has been elected for the ensuing session, with the exception of Col. A. F. Redd, resigned. Col. Redd is a man of superior mental attainments and high order of culture, and has filled his position with distinction for six years. Prof. G. W. Macon, an alumnus of Howard College, has been secured to fill the vacancy. His record for Christian character, dignity, energy and fine scholarship, made while a student in this college, together with several years of successful experience in teaching—the last two of which were in the university of another State—justifies the expectation that he will prove to be a valuable acquisition to the corps of teachers. The college property is in good condition. The financial results of the session just closed are not satisfactory. Last year we reported the college out of debt, with the old scholarship notes out of the way, and the property dedicated for all time to the denomination for carrying on a college, and at the same time recommended that the work of raising an endowment be commenced. Previous to that, any moderate endowment would have been swept away by ante-bellum scholarships. The convention endorsed the recommendation to begin the work of endowment. Dr. G. A. Nunnally was secured by the Trustees as agent, to devote all of his time in energetically pushing the work forward. But he found that the question of removal of the college, which was raised at the close of the last convention, was so disturbing the minds of the denomination that it would be unwise for the Trustees to employ all of his time on the salary agreed upon; so he recommended to the board that he be allowed to continue his pastorate and at the same time do what he could toward raising the endowment on a reduced salary, which was accepted by the board. In connection with this report, I submit to the convention Dr. Nunnally's report, made to the board, for full information of the gratifying work done by him.

For the first time in many years, we have to report that the income of the college has not been sufficient to defray current expenses. The agitation of the removal question has so much shaken the confidence of many in the perpetuity of the college that many parents and guardians have been unwilling to enter their sons and wards while this question is pending; feeling that should it be moved to an unsatisfactory location to them, it would necessitate a change of school, with interruption and loss of time in their studies. So the patronage has been mostly from old students, the graduation class being one of the largest ever turned out. On these accounts the pay-students have been so diminished that we now have to report a deficit for the year of $1,632.29. This amount the board of Trustees had to borrow by giving a lien on the President's house and some other property. We ask you at this session to raise this amount to relieve the incumbrance thus created.

In order to obtain the wisest and most judicious selection of members of the Board of Trustees, we would suggest that the duty of nominating members to the convention, to take care of this sacred trust, be permanently placed in the hands of some authority, who shall feel the responsibility thus imposed. To this end, we would recommend that you make it the duty of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the convention to nominate from time to time, as vacancies occur, such persons who have an interest in the cause of denominational education, with financial skill, together with other qualifications that may be needed for the successful management of this great interest, to be confirmed by the convention. As it is we now have members who never attend board meetings, and who will tell you that they know nothing of the management and financial interests of the college.

The convention's connection with the college is through its representatives, appointed by you as members of the Board of Trustees. They being a corporate body, have under their charter the exclusive management and control of the institution. Complaints and suggestions as to the management, we are persuaded, could always be satisfactorily explained or adjusted, without being annually brought on the floor of this convention, to the great detriment of the college.

It is no longer necessary to report to you the superior character of training and mental culture imparted at Howard College, for it has made its impress through its graduates all over the land, and it is generally conceded to be the equal of any institution of the same high grade. So true is this that whatever may have been said, no one has as yet undertaken to criticise adversely its work, at least for the past fifteen years. On the contrary, commendations of it throughout this State, and by distinguished educators of colleges and universities of other States, are too numerous to mention. If we would retain this distinction, and make it what it should be, the question of removal must be at once definitely settled, the endowment move pushed forward, and it must receive the warm support of the denomination in patronage, and otherwise as it deserves.

One section of your board expires with this session of the convention. Respectfully submitted.

WM. W. WILKERSON, President.

MARION, ALA., June 13th, 1887.

To the Honorable Board of Trustees of Howard College:

DEAR BRETHREN—I herewith submit to you my report as financial agent of your body:

Under the appointment made by you, I began work September 1st, 1886. The season for the meetings of the district associations had opened, and I visited as many of them as is well-nigh possible with one man, overlapping each other, as many of them do in their sessions. I visited also a great number of the churches, made scores of addresses, wrote hundreds of letters, published many columns in behalf of the college in the Alabama Baptist, traveled more than 5,000 miles, and solicited contributions in money and notes on all occasions when it seemed prudent to do so. It is but right and proper in making this report that I should, with profound gratitude, acknowledge the generous help and encouragement which I received from editors and pastors and other agencies in the employ of the denomination. The results of this canvass have been very encouraging indeed, and your body should feel assured that Howard College has a warmer place in the hearts of Alabama Baptists than was generally thought, and there is a strong and growing conviction in the minds of the brethren that an endowment is essential, and there is a fixed determination on their part to build up the endowment. The financial results would have been much larger had not certain perplexing and diverting questions arisen concerning the removal of the college. Many brethren of wealth and liberality have assured me that as soon as the matter of location is settled, that they intend to come forward with large contributions to the endowment fund. As the discussion of this question spread over the State the receipts of the agency grew smaller until the first of June, when I thought it best to suspend all active efforts until the convention should meet, after which your body could take such course as your wisdom would dictate; yet the agency has been worth much more to the denomination and college than it has cost, in building sentiment and emphasizing denominational education. The receipts in notes now drawing interest are about.....$14,000.00

In cash.....2,172.97

The expenses of the work have been for printing, postage, traveling and agent's salary, $823.42.

The cash on hand, $1,349.55, is in the hands of your Treasurer, as will appear from his report.

In the full belief that a grand endowment awaits the Howard at no great distance in the future, and trusting in your wisdom to direct the affairs of the college wisely and looking to God for his favor and blessing, I remain your humble servant,

G. A. NUNNALLY.

28. Porter King, President, read the report of the Board of Trustees of Judson Female Institute, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

Report of the Trustees of the Judson Female Institute.

The forty-ninth session of the Judson closed on the 15th day of June, 1887. There were in attendance 151 pupils; of these 92 boarded in the Institute.

The grand organ, of the building of which mention was made in the last report, was completed early in the session at a cost of about three thousand dollars. The able director of music, Prof. Ayers, and other competent judges, pronounce it a very fine instrument.

The buildings, the furniture and the musical instruments are in good repair, the grounds handsomely improved, the Institute free of all indebtedness, with cash to its credit in bank.

Your board are contemplating still further improvements for the convenience and comfort of the inmates by the erection of water works, elevators, etc.

For a detailed account of the work of the school, reference is made to the annual report of the President. Early in the year, Dr. Frazer, who for five years had so successfully and satisfactorily presided over the Judson, impelled by feeble health, tendered his resignation as President. The board were deeply grieved to part with one who, by his scholarly attainments, his superior methods of instruction, his financial skill and assiduous devotion to the interests of the school, had accomplished so much in elevating the standard of scholarship, and in liquidating the indebtedness, and in making valuable additions to the property.

The board at once addressed itself to the duty of selecting a successor, and after a very extended correspondence with our brethren in different sections of the country, the situation being carefully considered and Divine guidance earnestly invoked, invited Prof. Samuel W. Averett, LL. D., of Danville, Va., to visit the school, which he did in March last. The interview resulted in his election as President.

Dr. Averett is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, was in the service until the breaking out of the late war, when, upon the withdrawal of Virginia from the Union, he tendered his resignation in the navy and took his place under the flag of the Confederacy.

For the last fifteen years, he, in connection with his brother, has with decided success presided over the Roanoke Female College. From the evidence furnished by our brethren, who have known Dr. Averett long and intimately, we feel warranted in recommending him as in all respects eminently fitted for the position—a devout Christian, a scholar, a proficient and experienced teacher, a good financier and possessing executive and administrative ability of a high order.

Most of the faculty, who have for years been connected with the institute, will retain their positions and vacancies will be filled by able and skilled teachers. Respectfully submitted,

Attest: J. B. LOVEFACE, Secretary, PORTER KING, President.

This report closes the twentieth year of my presidency of the Board of Trustees. When the duties of the office were placed upon me, the school was embarrassed with debt and in need of many things essential to the comfort of its surroundings and the success of its conduct. But the hand of the Lord has been with us and it is now on the floodtide of prosperity.

It seems a good time to commit to younger and more vigorous hands the duties I have borne during these years, too feebly, it is true, but yet with all the earnestness of loving zeal. I beg leave, therefore, to resign the position with which your kindly consideration has honored me, and in doing so, I invoke the richest favor of heaven upon the future conduct of the school, praying that it may go on increasing in all the elements of power and usefulness. Most respectfully and fraternally yours,

PORTER KING.

FRIDAY NIGHT, 8 o'clock.

33. The Introductory sermon was preached by J. P. Shaffer from Gal. 1.

SATURDAY MORNING SESSION.

The half hour's devotional exercises were had, led by L. O. Dawson and participated in by G. E. Brewer, J. M. Frost, F. C. Plaster and S. M. Adams, when business was resumed.

34. A committee of T. H. Stout, L. W. Lawler and Joseph Swink were appointed on time and place for the next session of the Convention.

35. Z. D. Roby, Chairman of the special committee, to whom such part of the report of the State Mission Board as alluded to Associational missions was referred, reported as follows:

Your committee have carefully considered this subject, and find that the difficulties confronting the board now are the same difficulties with which it has had to contend all the years of its existence, viz.: The want of funds entrusted to its own management, to be appropriated when and where and how the wisdom of the board may dictate. Much the larger proportion of the board's apparent receipts have been directed and appropriated by the contributors and not by the board. In other words, the churches in many instances, and many of our associations, send nothing to the Board without instructions as to how and where their contributions are to be used. This leaves the board without the ability to do just what the Convention created the board to do. Your committee recommend:

1. That this Convention earnestly appeal to the executive committees of all the associations and to the pastors throughout the State, urging them to fullest co-operation with the State Mission Board in the appointment of all their associational missionaries, and to send all their contributions to the board without restrictions.

2. That the State Mission Board use all the means in its power to awake an increased interest in our State work and to arouse more activity and larger liberality for its support. Of course we are incompetent to specify the means to be used; the board itself is in position to best determine this and kindred questions.

Z. D. ROBY,
JOS. SHACKELFORD,
G. A. LOFTIN.

36. The report of the Committee (see Item 68) on the report of the State Mission Board, reported through the chairman, J. P. Shaffer, and was discussed by J. M. Frost, W. C. Cleveland, J. O. Hixson and J. C. Hudson, when the hour set for discussion of the report of Committee on Location having arrived, after prayer by I. T. Tichenor,

37. R. H. Sterrett, chairman of the committee appointed at last session, as per item No. 61, read the following report on the location of a college:

The Committee appointed by the Alabama Baptist State Convention, under a resolution adopted at its session held in Birmingham, in July, 1886, and requested to confer with the land companies and citizens of Birmingham, and also with the citizens of other large towns in the State, which may claim to bid for the location of a college, respectfully report that the following offers have been made to the Convention as donations for the establishment of a Baptist College:

I. The Bessemer Land and Improvement Company:

A choice block of ground in Bessemer, Ala., on the A. G. S. R. R., about twelve miles west of Birmingham, estimated in value at $10,000, and a cash subscription of $10,000. The college to be located at Bessemer.

II. The North Birmingham Land Company, if buildings are erected and the character of the school established as set forth in the said resolutions, to donate to the Convention, as a site for the college, twelve acres of land, situated near the Georgia Pacific Railroad, and near the dummy line and near the Park of the Company, and about three miles north of the city of Birmingham, Ala., estimated in value by the donors at $4,000 per acre.

To this is added the offer of the Lakeside Land Company, to establish in or near Birmingham, a Baptist University of high order, twenty acres of their land valued by the company at $500 per acre, and the subscriptions in money from the citizens of Birmingham, provided said college is located within six miles of said city, the sum of $20,000, making in all, in land and money, an estimated value of $78,000.

III. The East Lake Land Company, a donation of sixty acres of land at East Lake, a new town, near the Ruhama Baptist Church, near the dummy line, and near the lake of the company, and about six miles of Birmingham, in Jones' valley, for the location of a Baptist college thereon, the gift being to the Baptists of Alabama on condition.

that they open a school by October 1st, next, and that the sum of $50,000 be expended on buildings, within eighteen months from date of acceptance. This property is estimated by those acquainted with its location and value at $85,000.

To this is added the following donations:

The Walker Land Company, a donation of fifteen acres of land to the Baptists of Alabama for the location of a college on condition that the college be located either on the lands of the East Lake Land Co., or the adjoining lands of this company, and that the school be opened by October 1st, 1887, and that the sum of $50,000 be expended on the college building within eighteen months from the date of acceptance of such donation. This property is estimated in value by those acquainted with its location and value at $15,000. It is situated near the dummy line between Woodlawn and East Lake, and is about five miles east of Birmingham. Also subscriptions from the citizens of East Lake in land estimated by those acquainted with its location and value at $30,075.00.

Also the offer of the Lakeside Land Co., in order to establish in or near Birmingham, a Baptist University of high order, twenty acres of its land, valued by the company at $500 per acre. Also subscriptions from the citizens of Woodlawn in land and money estimated by those acquainted with the location and value of the land at $10,000, and the subscriptions in money from the citizens of Birmingham, provided said college is located within six miles of said city, the sum of $20,000, making a total in land and money of an estimated sum of one hundred and seventy thousand and seventy-five dollars.

The foregoing bids are herewith delivered to the Convention.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ROBERT H. STERRETT,
E. B. TEAGUE,
H. S. D. MALLORY,
PORTER KING,
J. E. CHAMBLISS.

38. Then the following resolutions were submitted by M. B. Wharton, with the proviso offered by T. G. Bush:

Resolved, That we gratefully accept the proposition of the East Lake Land Company and citizens of Birmingham wherein they propose to donate $170,075 in real estate and money for the removal, establishment and endowment of what is known as "Howard College," said institution to be owned, controlled and fostered by the Baptist Convention of the State of Alabama, provided that the offer made shall be found, upon investigation, to be substantially what it is represented to be in the report of the committee appointed at the last Convention.

Resolved, That a Prudential Committee, composed of Jonathan Haralson, Samuel Henderson, J. M. Frost, G. A. Lofton, G. A. Nunnally, B. F. Riley, Z. D. Roby, J. A. Howard, L. W. Lawier, W. C. Cleveland, J. P. Shaffer, M. B. Wharton and T. G. Bush, be appointed to visit Birmingham during the present month for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the offer made, with full power to act in approving or rejecting the same, and in case of approval, the said committee shall arrange for the opening of the institution there on October 1st next with the faculty as at present constituted at Marion. The Committee shall report the result of their labors through the Alabama Baptist and other leading papers.

Resolved, That in case the committee decide favorably as to the proposition made it, it be instructed to apply to the next Legislature for such amendments to the charter of Howard College as may be necessary.

Provided further, that if the committee shall decide that the inducements, in accordance with the instructions, are sufficient to justify the removal of Howard College, they shall be authorized to entertain a proposition from the same or any other place offering equal inducements and advantages and act upon them.

Which were discussed by J. C. Wright, T. G. Bush, D. I. Purser, W. E. Lloyd, B. H. Crumpton, J. P. Hubbard, J. A. Howard, E. A. Stone, G. A. Lofton, J. O. Hixson, G. T. Lee, F. C. Plaster, when the hour of adjournment having arrived, on motion, further consideration was suspended until three o'clock, and the Convention adjourned after prayer.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

3 O'CLOCK.

39. After prayer by G. E. Brewer, the topic of the morning's discussion was taken up, when the following communication was read:

ANNISTON, July 13, 1887.

To the Alabama Baptist State Convention:

DEAR BRETHREN—If in the wisdom of the Convention it is decided to remove Howard College from Marion to some other point in the State, it is thought that Anniston furnishes more advantages and fewer objections for the location of the college than any other point in the State;

And as an inducement for its location in Anniston, provided it is resolved to remove it, I am authorized to offer fifteen thousand dollars in money and twenty acres of land in the corporate limits of the city, less than one-half mile from the centre of the city and beautifully located. This land can be sold for two thousand dollars per acre at the present time. This offer is an absolute gift, with the privilege of selling whatever is not needed for the college and other necessary buildings. Ten acres of this land can be sold for twenty thousand dollars. This amount, added to the fifteen thousand dollars in money, would furnish buildings worth thirty-five thousand dollars, located on a plot of ten acres of land beautifully located in the city.

In addition to this, one hundred acres of land can be procured as an endowment for the college by gift within three miles of the city. This land is beautifully located, and would be very valuable to the college as the nucleus of an endowment.

We respectfully suggest that if it is resolved to remove the college that a committee be appointed representing every part of the State, no member of the committee to be from communities bidding for the college, to visit the communities bidding for the college and thoroughly investigate, first, the location and value of the gifts to the college; secondly, the water and health of the location and surroundings; thirdly, the morals of the city; and fourthly, the accessibility and probabilities of local patronage.

Signed,

E. T. SMYTH.

When the discussion was resumed, participated in by C. Smith, A. B. Johnston, C. C. Huckabee, B. H. Crumpton, L. W. Lawler, when the Convention adjourned to 8 o'clock to-night, with the subject still pending, after prayer.

SATURDAY NIGHT, 8 o'clock.

40. After devotional exercises, participated in by G. A. Nunnally, M. B. Wharton, J. O. Hixson, W. C. Cleveland, by motion speeches were limited to ten minutes, and discussion continued by L. W. Lawler, M. B. Wharton, E. B. Teague, J. P. Hubbard, when the resolutions as amended were adopted.

41. On motion, it was resolved to consider the reports of the Committee on Home Missions and on Foreign Missions on Sabbath afternoon at 4 o'clock.

SABBATH MORNING.

42. The several pulpits of the churches of the city were filled as per suggestion of the Committee on Devotional Exercises. J. M. Frost, the regular appointee, preached in the Baptist Church from John 20: 8, "Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw and believed."

SABBATH AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

43. After devotional exercises the report on Home Missions was read by J. S. Dill, chairman.

Report on Home Missions.

The Home Mission Board has, during the past conventional year, prosecuted the great work intrusted to it with marked success and with evident tokens of divine approval.

Under the present vigorous administration of the board, the work has been enlarged from year to year; and, quoting from the recent report to the Southern Baptist Convention, we have the following statistics for the year ending May 1st, 1887:

Missionaries	251
Places occupied	822
Baptisms	3,923
Received by letter.....	2,319

S. S. reported	318
Teachers and pupils	13,031
Churches constituted	119
Houses of worship built	62
Expenditure for Missions	$86,827.05
Expenditure for Church building	35,270.15

The contributions to the mission work of the board the past year have exceeded by nearly $10,000.00 those of previous years, and have enabled the board, without decreasing its work, to nearly extinguish a debt of $8,500.00 reported in 1886.

While each department of the work has afforded signs of progress, we are especially grateful to God for the report coming from Cuba. Brother Diaz has organized three churches, baptized 325 converts, established four Sunday-schools, and organized three day schools. These day schools are made necessary by the persecutions to which Baptists are there subjected.

ENLARGED PLANS FOR THE FUTURE.

So far from this board having ended its mission, there rest upon it enlarged demands, which justify the call it makes for an increase of 50 per cent. upon its former receipts. The wide field to which this board devotes itself is only growing wider. The first wave of wealth and population that has swept southward tells us of that oncoming tide, under the influence of which villages spring into cities, and forest and field give place to the busy life of the people. The near future lays upon this board a work such as it has never before attempted, and places before them obligations to the Master which they cannot disregard. As the vast tides of emigration teem to these genial skies, and to this wealth of soil and mineral and timber, it is our duty, through this and other organizations at our command, to see to it that the people be placed under the sweet influence of the truth as we hold it. The history of Southern Baptists depends in large measure upon our home mission operations for the next ten years.

The immediate demands upon the board for the present year may be briefly stated. Among the Indians, a school at Atoka, in the Choctaw Nation, is needed. Besides, the smaller towns in Florida, Pensacola and St. Augustine, and the Cubans at Tampa must be helped. Louisiana, including New Orleans, must have double the amount of former years, or there will be disaster to the cause. The work among the colored people, so auspiciously begun, must be enlarged to reach every State in the South. A house of worship in Havana has become a necessity, and the extension of the work to other cities of Cuba, that thirst for the living waters of a pure faith, must advance, if we be faithful to our trust. In view of all this, is not the demand from the Home Board a small one, and will not the Baptists of Alabama respond cheerfully and promptly to their part of the work?

We record with pleasure the success of the Kind Words enterprise, which, under instruction of the Southern Baptist Convention, the Home Board is now vigorously prosecuting. A most excellent and complete series of Sunday-school literature is now sent forth from Atlanta by the board. We recommend that our churches take it, not simply because it is as good and cheap as the best.

In accordance with instruction of the convention, an assistant secretary has been recently appointed to share with Dr. Tichenor the labors of his office. The board is to be congratulated upon having secured the services of Dr. J. Wm Jones, of Richmond, Va., who, with characteristic energy, is already pressing the great work.

In view of the past record, its present pressing demands, its characteristic energy, and the new life of our Southern churches, which are fast rising to better organization, we look hopefully to the future; and trusting in the blessing of Almighty God, we anticipate for the Home Board a year of success unparalleled in its past history.

J. S. DILL, Chairman.

44. The report on Foreign Missions was read by T. H. Stout.

Report on Foreign Missions.

The imperative command of the Master, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," comes down through the past eighteen centuries upon our ears to-day, having lost nothing of its obligation, but rather gathering force and power as the ages come and go, and as the earth and its nations become better known.

As we look over the field our hearts are thrilled with the signs of joyful progress. Never before, in the history of modern missions, have the steps of advance been so marked; certainly never have the Southern Baptists had such cause for devout gratitude to God for His blessing upon our efforts in foreign lands as during the last year. And while the obligation to give the gospel to the nations exists irrespective of what has been or what may be accomplished by the efforts put forth, but is dependent upon the direct command of our Saviour alone, yet for our encouragement in this grand and blessed work, we present the following facts:

During the last year the sum of $87,830.53 was paid into the treasury of our Foreign Mission Board, the largest amount, by $12,000 in actual cash, that has ever been received by the board during any year of its history.

Of this sum Alabama Baptists contributed $4,692.29, which though far less than it should have been, is considerably more than the amount given last year, and shows an increased interest in the Master's cause. Let us try to work up a greater interest still, which shall make our contributions yet more abundant. The members of our churches in foreign lands gave last year $3,012.61, an average of nearly $2 per member. Our native Christian, Brother Wong Yeur San, has built in Shanghai, China, a chapel at his own expense, costing $1000.00, in which he preaches three times a week. Dr. Yates, our veteran missionary in China, says of him, "He is a city set on a hill, and his light is radiating in every direction. He and his noble act are an inspiration to all, and I am so thankful that it has happened in my church. The Lord be praised! The morning light is breaking."

A late letter from Dr. Yates brings the cheering news of a revival in Brother Wong's Chapel, such as has never been known in the history of the Shanghai Mission before.

Should not this act of sacrifice for the cause of the Redeemer stimulate us to greater, to very much greater, liberality?

God has blessed all our fields in the past year—in China, in Africa, in Italy and in Brazil. The progress has been encouraging, and in Mexico so wonderful has been the advance that it recalls the prophetic promise, "that a nation shall be born in a day."

In this field one hundred (100) were reported baptized during the last year, and one hundred and fifty (150) were awaiting the ordinance. One has gone from our own beloved State, Mrs. Annie P. McCormick, formerly Miss Perry, of Marlon, under the shadow of the Judson, to that hopeful field, and is devoting her life to our blessed Lord in that priest-ridden land. The results of our foreign mission work for the past year, as reported to the Southern Baptist Convention, at Louisville, Ky., were as follows:

Missionaries, 116; baptized, 228; number of members, 1,551; churches and stations, 65; schools, 25; pupils, 587.

We cannot close this report without calling the attention of the Convention to the importance of supporting the Foreign Mission Journal. One reason many of our people take so little interest in the work is, they do not know anything about it. There are large churches in our State that do not take a single copy.

It has been found that those States and churches, where the Journal is most freely circulated, make, other things being equal, the most liberal gifts to the cause.

We advise all our pastors to encourage their flocks to take and read this interesting source of missionary intelligence.

Respectfully submitted.

49. The report on State Missions was adopted.

50. The following communication from the Ann Hazeltine Society was read and ordered spread on the Minutes:

JUNE 15, 1887.

To the Alabama Baptist State Convention soon to assemble in Union Springs, Ala., the Ann Hasseltine Society, Judson Institute, sends kindly and most respectful greetings through its honored representative, President S. W. Averett, of Judson Institute, and beg leave to report that during the session of 1886-87 this society held its regular monthly meetings, which were interesting and of lasting benefits we trust, to all its membership.

For the interest and profit attending these monthly meetings we have been indebted for some years, partly to letters received by different members of the society from some of the missionaries themselves, but most largely to information gathered from the Foreign Mission Journal, published at Richmond, Va.

Through its pages we have become acquainted with the noble, consecrated men and women, who, with ardent zeal for the cause of Christ, went forth from home and native land to carry the good news of salvation to the benighted nations who sit in the region and shadow of death.

From the same source we have learned something of the self-sacrificing labors of these devoted men and women. We have heard, too, their earnest appeals for help, and in our feeble way have responded to the cry.

It has been the custom of this society to divide its contributions among the three boards of our denomination, viz., The Foreign, the Home, and the State Mission Boards, but for reasons we need not mention here, our contributions this year were sent to the "Foreign Mission Board" and to the "Adoriram Judson Memorial Church Edifice Fund." To the former twenty-three dollars ($23.70) seventy cents, to the latter twenty-one ($21.00) dollars, making a sum total of $44.70.

Respectfully submitted.

51. The Committee on Time and Place made a report, which was amended and adopted so as to read as follows:

Your committee recommend that the next session of this Convention be held with the church at Talladega, to begin on Friday before the third Sabbath (13th) in July, 1888.

T. H. STOUT,
L. W. LAWLER,
JOSEPH SWINK.

52. On motion, the report of the special committee, Item 36, on report of the State Mission Board, was recommitted.

53. Agreed that future speeches be limited to five minutes.

54. The report on Education was read.

Education.

The report of the Committee on Education was then read as follows:

Your committee would be glad to report (I) the number of schools over which Baptists preside; (II) the number of Baptist teachers, male and female, employed; and (III) the number of Baptist pupils and pupils of Baptist families attending school in this State.

Primary schools, public and private, high schools and academies, scattered as they are over every county in Alabama, constitute much the largest part of all our educational facilities, and if we would do our whole duty, as one of the leading Christian denominations of this great commonwealth, we must do our full share in the teaching, management and control of these schools.

Any so-called report on education that does not take account of the immense work done by these schools is not worthy of the name.

But such a report as your committee wish to make to this Convention is impossible, not because we are unable or unwilling to gather the necessary statistics, but because there are no such statistics.

As a denomination we have no disposition to court or be courted by the State, and certainly we entertain no matrimonial intentions in that direction. As heretofore, so now, we would most carefully guard against "all entangling alliances," and yet we would be truly glad if the State reports on education were arranged so as to show what the Baptists are doing in this our great work.

Howard College and the Judson Female Institute have already presented their reports. They speak for themselves.

Here are the only two items your committee have to report.

I. In the State University, during the past two years, about one-fifth of the matriculants have been Baptists. Forty of the 200 students were Baptists.

II. In the A. and M. College, during the last year, nearly one-fourth of the matriculants were Baptists, 46 of the 185 students were Baptists. In these two State institutions 86 of our young men have been pursuing their studies.

Resolved, That the Trustees of Howard College be authorized and requested to appropriate any property in Marion belonging to this Convention that they may see fit to the payment of the sixteen hundred dollars indebtedness they report to the Convention.

and discussed by E. A. Stone, A. F. Redd, J. F. Purser (ten minutes' rule being suspended pending this discussion) and the special order set aside and the time extended, and discussed by W. B. Crumpton, C. C. Huckabee, J. C. Hudson, Catt. Smith, when the Convention adjourned with the subject pending, after prayer.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

After prayer, business was resumed.

56. Discussion continued by J. J. D. Renfroe, S.

Henderson, A. F. Redd, when a motion was adopted to strike out such recommendation in the report as relates to the establishment of a board, and the report as amended was adopted.

57. Again the general order was suspended and the following adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention, and it is hereby declared as the proper construction of the resolutions heretofore, at this session adopted, in reference to the removal of Howard College, and the location of the same elsewhere, wherein a committee of thirteen were appointed by this Convention to effect the purposes of said resolutions; that a majority of said committee shall constitute a quorum thereof, and as such may act in reference to any matter of business coming before said committee as fully and legally as the whole committee itself might or could do if all the members thereof were present.

58. On motion of C. C. Huckabee, the vote of the Convention on Saturday last, referring to the removal of Howard College, was made unanimous. (Item 40.)

59. The general order was again suspended to hear the following report from a sub-committee of the Committee of Thirteen.

The undersigned were appointed as a sub-committee from the Committee of Thirteen, on the removal of Howard College, to confer with brethren Wilkerson and Lovelace, the grantors in the deed of dedication of the Howard College property therein described, to this Convention, to ascertain what their wishes are touching the said property and its dedication, with a request from said Committee of Thirteen to report to the Convention such action as in our judgment the Convention ought to take in reference to the property referred to, beg leave to report that we have had an interview with these two brethren and they inform us that they are not prepared just now, without further reflection and consideration, to indicate what course they prefer to be taken by the Convention, if any, and can, therefore, venture no suggestions in the premises.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That a committee, consisting of H. S. D. Mallory, H. A. Haralson, and J. M. Frost, be appointed by the Convention to meet and confer with brethren Wilkerson and Lovelace at any time that may be agreeable to them to make surrender and transfer of the property dedicated in said deed of conveyance to this Convention to such persons, for such use, and purposes, and in such manner as brethren Wilkerson and Lovelace may desire and indicate, hereby recognizing their legal right to the property in case Howard College shall be removed from Marion; Provided, that no surrender and transfer of said dedication shall be made by said committee until after Howard College shall have been removed by the action of said Committee of Thirteen, under the instructions of this Convention, from Marion, and when said committee shall have made surrender and transfer of said property and its dedication, at the time and in the manner herein authorized, this Convention hereby ratifies and confirms the action of the said committee as its own.

2. Resolved, That brethren Wilkerson and Lovelace are hereby authorized, for the current year, beginning October 1st, next, in case said college is removed from Marion, to make such use of the property described in said deed, for educational purposes, as may seem to them proper and beneficial to the community at Marion.

3. Resolved, That this Convention hereby directs the Treasurer of the Convention, in cases of parties who have made subscriptions in money and notes to the permanent endowment of Howard College, since the last session of this Convention, conditioned upon the non-removal of Howard College from Marion, if said college shall be removed, to refund to such parties respectively the money and notes received from them.

4. Resolved, That the action of this Convention, looking to the removal of Howard College from Marion, does not lessen the appreciation of this Convention of the generosity and Christian liberality of brethren Wilkerson and Lovelace in dedicating to the Convention the valuable property embraced in their said deed, and the Convention hereby repeats the expression of its gratitude to them for their munificent dedication.

JOH. HARALSON,
L. W. LAWLER,
Committee.

60. The report of the Committee on the Report of the Ministerial Board was read and discussed by J. S. Dill, M. B. Wharton and W. C. Cleveland (pledges having been obtained to the amount, $1,190.20).

Your special committee, to whom was referred the report of the Board of Ministerial Education, submit the following:

We feel that the Baptists of Alabama have much cause for congratulation upon the success of the work committed to this board. That the brethren having in charge this important work have been earnest and faithful, clearly appears from the report of their very efficient chairman. It is gratifying to know that they have been able to give needed help to so many young brethren who are preparing to give themselves to the great work of preaching the gospel, and especially gratifying to learn from the report of the board that "no worthy applicant has been denied, and in each case such a sum granted as afforded the relief needed."

It appears from the report under consideration that the board needs and asks for $3,000.00 for the next year. We most earnestly recommend that the churches be urged to raise that amount. The board has not the sympathy and help its importance demands, and it is a source of painful regret that this is true. We recommend that pastors bring to the attention of their churches the increasing demands made upon this board and press upon them its very great importance. A few associations, churches and brethren have borne the burden, and right nobly has it been done; yet every association, every church, indeed every Baptist in Alabama should deem it a privilege as well as a duty to contribute to the treasury of this board. If we fail to do this, and if from our failure some worthy man is unable to get an education, we are in no small degree accountable.

W. C. BLEDSOE, Chairman.

61. The report on Sunday-schools was read and adopted:

Report on Sunday-schools.

Your committee understands that a report on this subject is not complete without full statistics from which could be gathered at a glance the number of Baptist churches in Alabama that have Sunday-schools, the number that have no Sunday-schools, the number of pupils in attendance and the number of teachers engaged in the work.

From the best information that your committee can obtain, it may be safely stated that of the fourteen hundred Baptist Churches in Alabama not more than four hundred have Sunday-schools; and that in attendance on these schools there are not more than twelve or thirteen thousand pupils. This estimate is encouraging when we remember that it shows a very large increase when compared with what was done in this work only a few years ago.

We have read much that has been written and heard many speeches that have been made on this subject, and in most of the articles written and speeches made, the central idea has been to impress upon readers and hearers the importance of Sunday-school work. This thought ought to be emphasized and pressed in our papers, in our reports, from our pulpits and around the firesides of our people when we plead for those measures looking to the advancement of the Master's cause. Your committee is of the decided opinion that notwithstanding all that has been written and all that has been said on the importance of Sunday-school work, we have not yet reached the time when we can abandon its earnest presentation to our people, nor will that time come until there is a well organized Sunday-school in every Baptist Church and every Baptist in the Sunday-school. The dawning of that day would be hailed with joy by many of our Baptist people, for it would mark the beginning of a new era of prosperity in our church work; yet, by a strange inconsistency they do nothing to hasten the approach of that happy time.

Those who are accomplishing much in Sunday-school work are men and women of convictions on this subject. They realize with their whole hearts that this is a field from the earnest and prayerful cultivation of which rich harvests are to be gathered to the glory of God in those grand results that surely follow the sowing of gospel truth—leading the unconverted to Christ, training and developing the young to love and support the benevolent enterprises which we as a denomination have in charge. And your committee begs to insist that when every pastor and preacher in Alabama has these convictions pressing upon heart and conscience concerning Sunday-school work, arising from a proper conception of its importance, then and then only will we see the beginning of the dawning of that day when every Baptist Church will have a Sunday-school and every Baptist a place in the Sunday-school.

W. C. BLENSOE, Chairman.

66. The session was opened with prayer.

67. The special order, the report on Temperance, was taken up and the report was read by W. G. Curry, chairman; discussed by G. A. Hornady, E. A. Stone, J. J. D. Renfroe, and S. Henderson. Amended and adopted.

Report on Temperance.

That intemperance is an evil is admitted by all good men. It wastes the earnings of the laborer and impoverishes and pauperizes the people. It fills our jails and penitentiaries with wretched victims, and brings thousands of happy homes to untold misery and want. Such are the convictions of all thoughtful men.

But the great question which now confronts us is, how are we to get rid of this terrible evil? Whatever may have been accomplished in the past through the agency of temperance societies, the opinion now seems to prevail that deliverance must come through legal enactment, and the success which has attended the efforts put forth on that line strengthens the opinion that the battle for prohibition must be mainly fought in the halls of legislation. Large sections of our State are now free from the baleful influences of the dram-shop. The little leaven planted here and there over the State has continued to permeate adjoining communities, extending its influence slowly but surely; and the time, we believe, is not far distant when the whole will be leavened. In those sections of the State where the traffic in whisky is prohibited, the good results are so marked that the conviction in favor of prohibition grows stronger every day. Many who opposed it bitterly at the first have now become its most earnest advocates. Thus prohibition is its own witness. No flaming speeches, appealing to the passions of men, are necessary in those favored sections, where the people have seen for themselves the good effects of prohibition. When we review the progress which has been made in the last few years in this great temperance reform, it seems that its most ardent advocates might well be content with present methods. All great reforms move slowly. In this grand temperance movement much may be lost by precipitation.

It is the opinion of this Convention that the time has arrived to appeal to the ballot-box wherever and whenever our Legislature shall authorize the people to vote on the question of prohibition.

We are anxiously looking forward to the day when we shall have both State and United States constitutional prohibition. And with the marvelous growth of the prohibition sentiment, it seems clear that that glorious day is near at hand.

As Christians, and as citizens of the State, the members of this Convention should commit themselves to every measure in their respective sections which looks to this end.

W. G. CURRY,
Chairman.

68. The Committee to whom was re-committed the report of the committee on the report of the State Mission Board, made the following report, which was discussed by W. B. Crumpton, J. F. Bledsoe and G. A. Nunnally, and adopted.

Report of Committee on the Report of the State Mission Board.

We find nothing in the report on State Missions at which to complain. The board and Secretary will allow us to assure them that they have the cordial endorsement of the denomination in the State.

As the new and increasing demands upon the board press upon your hearts, may the denomination appreciate the situation and come to your help with means to prosecute your enlarged and ever-enlarging work.

The increasing population of our State, as well as the increasing wealth of our brethren, alike demand the enlargement of the work of the State Mission Board. This cannot be done without enlargement of our contributions for State Missions. We most earnestly beg our churches to keep this fact in mind, and that for the ensuing year their contributions for State missions should be materially enlarged. The period is peculiar and full of destiny for the cause of the Baptists of Alabama.

We are sure that the board is alive to the extraordinary situation, and we most earnestly ask the churches to enable the board to meet the demands of the cause.

We are gratified to learn from the report of our Secretary that the efforts of the board to improve our system of benevolence have not been without success. Allow us to express the opinion that one of our great wants is well defined and well executed plans to regulate and enlarge our contributions.

The report informs the Convention that the management of the colportage department of the work of the board has become embarrassing, and asks that the Convention shall give the Secretary an assistant, or place the colportage work in other hands.

The Secretary will allow us to assure him that we would most willingly relieve him of the colportage work to which he has called our attention, but we do not think it proper to do so now. We therefore recommend that the work shall remain under the control of the State Mission Board during the next year, and that the board shall make such arrangements for assisting the Secretary in the work as in their wisdom they may deem best.

Resolved, That the State Mission Board be, and is hereby instructed to take into consideration, at an early day, the establishment of a depository of our denominational book and tract literature, and if in their judgment found practical, they proceed to do the same. Respectfully,

JNO. P. SHAFFER,
E. A. STONE,
G. G. MILES,
G. D. BENTON,
B. F. GILES.
